

What should the rescue plan contain?

You can also download this example of the rescue plan from www.spek.fi/pelastussuunnitelma

1. Information required for the rescue plan
 - Date of creation or updating of the rescue plan
 - How the rescue plan has been created?
 - When and how are you going to update the rescue plan?
2. Dangers and risks of the building
 - What risks have been recognised in the building?
 - How have these risks been identified?
 - Are there any workers in the building that you should pay special attention to?
3. Prevention of dangers and risks
 - What has been done with the risks that have been recognized?
 - What kind of instructions have been given to the inhabitants in the building to prevent dangers and risks?
4. Independent preparedness for emergency conditions
 - How the civil defence has been organized for the building?
 - Civil defence shelter
 - Independent inspection report of the civil defence shelter
 - Has the implementation plan been created for the civil defence shelter?
5. Operating procedures for different accidents and dangers
 - What kind of instructions have been given to the inhabitants and regular workers of the building?
 - Internal operating procedures of the building
6. Communication
 - How is the rescue plan and the instructions communicated to the people?
7. Maintenance of the rescue plan
 - Monitoring of safety
 - Where and how are issues of safety reported?
 - Safety training in the building

ATTACHMENTS

- Basic knowledge of the building
- Central contact information
- Operating procedures

1. Basic knowledge of the building

- Name and address:
- Year of construction:
- Number of apartments:
- Number of inhabitants:
- Number of non-residential spaces:
- Number of regularly working people:
- Stairways:
- Lifts/elevators:

2. Contact information

- Owner/Supervisory board/Residential committee:
- Safety team:
- Building manager:
- Building maintenance:
- Other: